Installed . . .

. . . last week on Santa Cruz avenue were 20 trees in tubs, to add to the business district's beauty. Such plantings have been the subject of years of discussion by city and Chamber of Commerce officials. Above, Mrs. Sue Vavra admires an olive tree, one of several among the trees installed.

Estate Zoning 'Safe by Default'

The half-acres "estate" zoning existing in the vicinity of Valparaiso avenue and San Mateo drive appears to have gained new life—because an apparent Council majority favoring its elimination this week wasn't enough, according to city law.

To overturn the Planning Commission's recommendation against rezoning the property to 15,000 square feet per lot, a four-fifths Council majority is needed.

And the indications were Tuesday night that the vote would be only 3-2.

Councilman Guy Plaisted, who was away on business, and Mayor William R. Lawson have stated they oppose rezoning the area. Indicating favor at a recent study meeting were Ira Bonde, Michael Belangie and Vaile Andrus.

No action was taken Tuesday because of Plaisted's absence, but Belangie indicated he thought the eventual outcome was clear.

Plaisted, who is the council's liason man with the commission, said in a memo that he thought the rezoning "would be undesirable."

The mayor has said that overturning the commission recommendation would damage the original master plan concept.

Belangie, Bonde and Andrus have held that residential land use within the city, and particullarly along Valparaiso avenue, which now carries a heavy traffic load, has been changing since the master plan was drawn up years ago.

Plaisted is expected back for the next regular meeting of the Council on Tuesday, May 24, and the vote may be taken at that time.

Pioneer Resident Dies, 82

Harry E. Hallett of Menlo Park, son of a pioneer Woodside resident, died at the wheel of his car in the Stanford shopping center last Friday after a sudden heart seizure. He was 82.

Mr. Hallett, a Redwood City grocery store owner for 50 years before retiring, was taken to nearby Palo Alto-Stanford hospital where he was pronounced dead.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hallett on Feb. 25, 1878, in the town of Woodside, Mr. Hallett resided in Redwood City for many years before moving to Menlo Park in 1949. His residence was at 1435 Laurel avenue.

The store he founded, Hallett's Food Market, is still in business at 821 Jefferson street in Redwood City, operated by his son, Ralph H. Hallett of Redwood City.

He is also survived by two daughters, Isabel L. Hallett of Redwood City and Dorothy Loya of Oakland, and another son, Clement Hallett of San Jose.

Redwood City Lodge 168, F&AM, of which Mr. Hallett was a member, conducted the funeral services at the Johnston Colonial Mortuary chapel in Menlo Park Monday. Interment followed at Cypress Lawn cemetery.

Atherton Youth Is Top Speller

An Atherton boy is among five top-notch spellers from San Mateo County who will compete Saturday in San Francisco for Bay Area laurels.

Winners of the Bay Area event will go to the national spelldown in Washington, D. C.

Atherton's champion is 13-year-old Harry Kellogg of St. Raymond's School.

Along with the county's other four winners, he gained his title at a spelldown last week in Burlingame, where 22 school and district champions competed for the co-championship.

Harry held his position in the champion five-some by properly coming through with "a-n-n-u-i-t-y," while the last three unsuccessful contenders tripped over "colossal", "cataract" and "camouflage".

Harry, an eighth grader, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Kellogg of 213 Park lane. He has a sister, Meg, 11, who attends the Convent of the Sacred Heart; a brother Peter, 7, who is also at St. Raymond's, and a brother Michael, 6, who attends Hillview School.

Office Uses Planned

The first legal step toward Menlo Park annexation of a 91-acre parcel apparently destined for light industrial, residential and business-professional use along Sand Hill road and Sharon Park drive was accomplished Tuesday night.

City Councilmen received official request for annexation by six land companies, all formed by the developers of the Sharon estate property.

On recommendation of City Attorney James T. O'Keefe, a resolution was adopted calling for public hearing on June 28.

If there are no objections, and none are anticipated, the Council at that time could introduce the annexation ordinance. The land is now uninhabited.

The companies listed as seeking the annexation were Golden Gate Development Co., Holiday Products, Inc., Golden Gate Materials, Inc., Raymac Homes, Inc., Raymac Construction Co., and Westmoor Construction Co.

Current plans call for development of sites within the annexation by Sunset Magazine, Allstate Insurance, and Pacific Telephone. Three churches have also indicated they will build in the area.

Sunset Magazine, if it is forced to move from its present Middlefield-Willow road location because of freeway plans, will occupy about 20 acres. The Allstate site is about 10 acres and the telephone company will have two or three acres.

There are four church sites indicated in current planning, and three of them will be developed by the Church of the Latter Day Saints, the Episcopal church and the Methodist church. The other site has not yet been committed. Each church property will be in the vicinity of five acres.

About 20 acres of the remainder are being tentatively planned for residential use, with some also marked by the developers for business and professional zoning.

Actual zoning of the property, however, will be up to the city of Menlo Park after annexation is effected.

Councilmen indicated Tuesday night they would like to see all of Sand Hill road added to the annexation boundaries, but a check by the office of City Engineer Edwin Smith Wednesday revealed the total roadway couldn't be included in the present action without taking the matter back before the County Boundaries Commission.

If the city wants to annex the full roadway now, a separate action will have to be held, Smith indicated.

Included in planning for the land involved is extension of Monte Rosa avenue from the present Sharon subdivision out to Sand Hill road.

JOIN DISTRICT

Residents of the "Stanford Weekend Acres" area along Alpine road voted Tuesday 31 to 5 in favor of joining the Menlo Park Sanitary District. Following soon after canvass of the vote next Monday by district commissioners, a sewage disposal system, installed in the area last year, will be tied into the district lines.

Continuing Fight

'Town Hall' Appeals Tax Suit To California Supreme Court

The Town Hall Association of San Mateo County this week took its fight against last year's sharp hike in area property assessments to the State Supreme Court.

Association President Adm. C. Julian Wheeler of Menlo Park announced that an appeal is being filed in their suit against county supervisors and the county assessor. The suit, charging that assessment procedures were unfair and improper, was denied in March by a lower court.

Representing the association in their new court move is Caspar W. Weinberger of the firm of Heller, Ehrman and McAuliffe.

Basis for the suit has been the 1959 re-assessment of properties in the southern portion of San Mateo County, resulting, in some instances, in as much as a 400 percent increase in valuation of property. The association has protested that the piecemeal nature of the increase places an unfair burden on south county taxpayers.

City Holds Off In Tax Action

Silvas Motors, formerly located at 209 El Camino Real, is making payments on back sales taxes, City Manager John R. Johnson told City Councilmen Tuesday night. The Council thereupon granted a further extension of a "show cause" action against the business.

The back taxes should be completely paid within 30 days, Johnson said.

In Annual Rodeo Queen Contest

Menlo Girls Seek Redwood Title

Four Menlo-Atherton High School girls are among those seeking the $500 college scholarship to be awarded the queen of the 21st annual Redwood City Rodeo and Fourth of July celebration. They are: Dianne Long, Wendy Woolley, Linda Eagan and Ann L'Hommedieu.

Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Long of 1108 Henderson avenue, is the past honored queen of Palo Alto Bethel 234, Job's Daughters. A native of Menlo Park, the 17-year-old brunette is a junior at Menlo-Atherton. She has two younger sisters: Kathy, 14, and Patty, 11.

Wendy, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Woolley of 1225 Hillview drive, came here last year from New York. She is a student council representative at Menlo-Atherton, where she is a sophomore. She is also a member of the Latin club. Her brother, Kenneth, 13, and sisters, Patsy, 10, and Ginger, 7, all attend Hillview School.

Blonde green-eyed Linda is an "A" student at Menlo-Atherton, where she is a member of the California Scholarship Federation, an alternate for student council, a member of the Spanish club and writes for the school newspaper. Fifteen, and a sophomore, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eagan Jr. of 440 Cotton street. She has a sister, Joanne, 13.

Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L'Hommedieu of 335 Olive street, is a member of the teen group of the Fremont Hills Swim and Tennis club. She is on the social board at Menlo-Atherton, the Tri-Y, the Girls Athletic Board and hopes to become a model. A green-eyed blonde, Ann at 15 is completing her sophomore year. She has two younger sisters: Joan, 12 and Gaie, 7, both students at Oak Knoll School.

The four girls will be competing with more than a dozen Bay area high school students for the Redwood City Rodeo queen's title and the right to reign over the July 2-4 celebration in Redwood City. The queen will be crowned Saturday night, June 25, at the American Legion Hall, Redwood City.

Spreading the Fame . . .

Fire District Eyes Higher Budget—but Same Taxes

Extension of the present fire alarm system of the Menlo Park Fire Protection District and replacement of a 23-year-old pumping engine appeared this week to be in the cards for the fiscal year 1960-61.

The prospect was raised Monday night as district commissioners mulled over a preliminary budget submitted by District Chief George B. Carter.

Commissioners set date for official public hearing on the budget for 8:30 a.m. June 25 in the headquarters fire station, 300 Middlefield road.

The hearing will be followed by the commissioners' annual tour of inspection of all district facilities.

Discussing the preliminary budget, Carter pointed out that the question of pay raises for district employees has not been determined. Present rough figures, however, contain a "cushion," he pointed out, to allow for some increase to keep district pay scales in line with possible raises in surrounding communities. Also provided for is the probable hiring of a few additional firemen to relieve those on vacation or sick leave.

Although the total preliminary budget figure of $748,105 represents an increase of some 10.5 per cent, district officials anticipate it can be raised without an increase in the district tax rate.

New construction within the district, while adding to district responsibilities, also increases the tax base, it was pointed out.

Preliminary estimates set cost of the expanded fire alarm system at about $20,000. This would present direct- alarm facilities generally westerly from Middlefield road, along El Camino Real and into the business center of the community.

Commissioners asked Carter to obtain more specific figures to show possibilities of covering not only this area but also of tying in schools as far to the west as Hillview and Oak Knoll.

Cost of replacing the 23-year-old pumping engine, the chief estimated at about $21,000.

Other capital outlay proposals discussed by the commission included:

1. Enlargement of kitchen facilities at Station 4 on the Alameda;

2. Replacement of cracked concrete apron in front of the Almendral avenue station;

Dist. Adjourns:

IN MEMORY

Board of Commissioners of the Menlo Park Fire Protection District Monday night adjourned their meeting in memory of Thomas F. Cuff. The regular monthly session was the first since death of the former fire chief, who headed the department here for 23 years until his retirement five years ago.

Commission Chairman Wallace E. Ott also recommended Chief George B. Carter and the men of the department for the outstanding tribute to Cuff which brought more than 100 leading firefighters from the bay area to his funeral here last week.

Chief Carter added his own thanks to the Menlo Park Police Department for the excellent, dignified cooperation they offered in connection with the tribute.

Summer School Registration Deadline Near

Advance registration for Sequoia District Summer High School courses will close May 27, it was announced this week by Clarence Wyatt, principal.

Demand signified prior to that time will determine the actual courses to be offered and the locations for them.

Any regular high school course will be offered, Wyatt said, if there is sufficient demand. Again, depending upon how many students register from given areas, the courses may be taught at any one or more of the district's regular high schools: at Menlo-Atherton, Ravenswood, Woodside, Sequoia or Carlmont.

All bona fide high school students, including those who will be freshmen in the fall, are eligible to attend the summer school classes so long as they reside in the Sequoia Union High School District. Attendance at district public high schools during the regular school year is not necessary, Wyatt stressed.

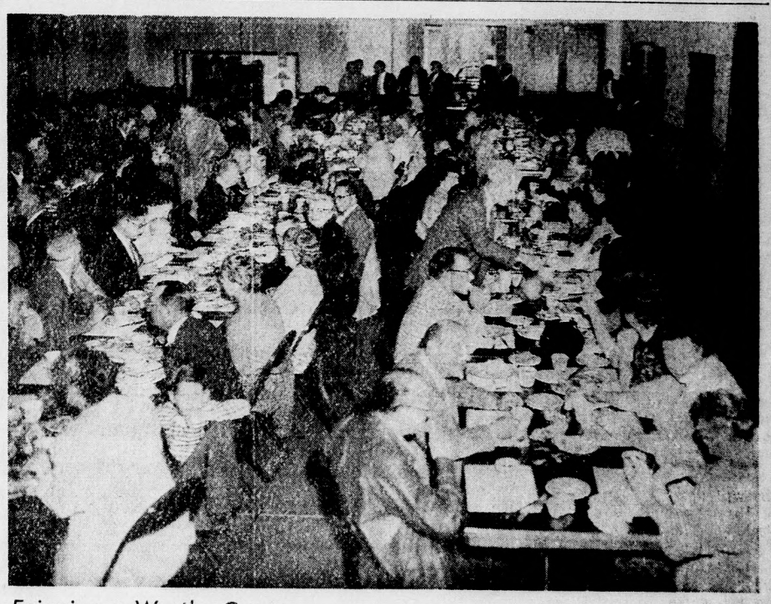

Wyatt urged all students who plan to take summer work but who have not yet registered, to do so now.

Application forms and detailed instructions may be obtained from the registrars at any district high school. Further information may be secured by telephoning DA 3-4145, extension 17.

ANNEXATION OKAYED

Residents of the Byers drive-Falk court annexation area will become Menlo Park taxpayers on Thursday, June 9.

Enjoying a Worthy Cause . . .

. . . some 275 local residents gathered one evening last week to eat spaghetti and chicken. Purpose was to help raise funds for construction of a church building of its own for the Italian Assembly of God here. The dinner was held in the meeting hall of the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church, where the congregation currently holds services. Result of the evening, according to the Rev. Frank Adornato, was a net profit of $450 towards the church edifice, work on which is expected to begin soon at the corner of Sharon road and the Alameda de las Pulgas.

Lecturer Aids Vets at Hospital With Talk on Writing Technique

By special request, on Monday, May 9 at 2:30 p.m., Mrs. Marie Mudra, Menlo Park author, re-visited the Veterans Administration Hospital to continue her library-sponsored discussions of the writing crafts. Her lecture this time was entitled "From Idea To the Printed Page."

Mrs. Mudra, who taught journalism for many years before moving to Menlo Park and devoting her full time to writing, says that a retired teacher finds the teaching habit hard to break.

When a group asks for help she can rarely resist the plea, she says. Patients at the local VA hospital responded so enthusiastically to her first appearance and so many aspiring authors were uncovered that a return visit seemed not only natural but necessary.

Unpublished manuscripts of the hospitalized veterans are being read by Mrs. Mudra to enable her to give specific aid and suggestions to individual writers. No one, says Mrs. Mudra, should be surprised at the strong urge a patient feels to express himself in writing since it is one of the few truly private activities available in a hospital setting.

However, in this particular case, hospital personnel say that full credit must be given Mrs. Mudra's dynamic personality. Patients who are shy and inarticulate find her sympathetic and responsive warmth most encouraging.

Mrs. Jane Greenleaf, Menlo Park, of the Friends of the Library, VA hospital, says that generous donations of flowers and refreshments have helped make the "Friends" activities festive for all attending.

Mrs. Helen Tracy and Mrs. Irene Van Heuvel, both of the Sequoia Chapter of the American Red Cross, have contributed freely from their gardens, as have many hospital staff members.

"Friends" are still hoping to find a rock-hound or prospector who would be willing to discuss his specialty at a library program.

GOLF group of the Menlo-Atherton Newcomers Club meets each Tuesday morning at 9:30 a.m. at Crystal Springs Golf Course. Those interested may contact Mrs. Norman Franz, DA 6-1458.

WHAT'S DOING

R. R. Maloney, your Telephone Manager for Menlo Park

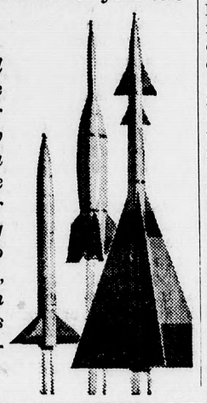

Mr. Harry M. Short, Menlo Park's Outside Representative, announces a wide variety of films for use by civic clubs, schools, or other organizations. By borrowing one of the films available at the telephone business office the talent of many movie stars and T.V. personalities is yours for the asking. Research, defense networks, guided missiles, and a host of other interesting subjects are available.

Mr. Short has at his disposal complete projection equipment and a library of over 50 films—day or evening showings can be arranged. Why not call us now to reserve the one you want.

When new lines go up, chances are you'll see telephone men working from trucks or poles with equipment like this. We call it a "cable-lasher" — it wraps the cable to a strong steel supporting strand. We used to do the job by hand, hooking rings around the strand then drawing the cable through them. The idea of a cable-lasher sounds simple enough, yet a lot of technical work went into making it a reality. It was well worth it though, because our cable-lasher saves us lots of time—and it's economies like this that help us give you more for your telephone dollar.

Missiles are slowpokes . . . compared to telephone service, that is. Figure it this way. An 18,000-mile-an-hour missile could fly from here to New York in about 10 minutes. But if you place a call to New York you're usually connected with the number in less than 30 seconds after dialing is completed! So even if men do someday speed about in missiles, it'll be a long time before you can beat the fastest way to visit folks far away . . . by long distance telephone.*

Local Chairmen Smiled . . .
. . . last week as the countywide fund drive for the American Cancer Society swept past the half-way mark in the current effort to raise $92,470. Mrs. Wallace E. Ott of Menlo Park (left) reported widespread public support for the campaign as she compared receipts to date with Mrs. Robert Clancy of Woodside.

By Younger, Engle:

Two Area Young Men Named To Air Force Academy

Congressman J. Arthur Younger today announced the appointment of Ronald Samuel Hershel, 131 Azalia drive, East Palo Alto to the Air Force academy at Colorado Springs, Colorado, effective July 1.

At the same time, Douglas Spencer Catchings, 1817 Oakdell drive, Menlo Park, was named to the Air Academy by Senator Clare Engle. Catchings is a student at the Millard School in Langlois, Oregon.

Hershel had the highest score in the final examination in which he contested with 10 other San Mateo County boys for the appointment. However, Alex M. Ross, 327 Elm street, San Mateo, one of the contestants, was selected out of the Air Force Reserve component for entrance to the academy.

Hershel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hershel and has one younger brother, Jack, a student at Brentwood School, East Palo Alto. His father is a supervisor at San Francisco Naval Shipyard, Hunter's Point.

The nominee is a senior at Ravenswood High School and a sprinter and a discus thrower. He is six feet tall and weighs 157 pounds. He is interested in missile work and has attended the Joe Berg Science Seminar at Sequoia High School for the past two years.

Catchings, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Catchings, graduated from Menlo-Atherton High School where he was Southern Peninsula Athletic League wrestling champion in 1958 and active in Hi-Y. He was an Explorer Scout and a member of the honorary scouting fraternity, "Order of the Arrow." He was a Red Cross senior life guard for three years.

Younger also named Frederick R. Crawford, 985 La Senda road, Hillsborough, to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. He was selected as a qualified alternate, following the earlier appointment of Frederick Andersen, San Mateo, and John A. Alich Jr., Burlingame.

Menlo Delegates Asked to Meet

Delegates from the city of Menlo Park have been invited to participate in a countywide committee concerned with means of curbing the incidence of crimes of violence which, it is felt, has been growing throughout the county.

The invitation was issued by Redwood City Councilman Sidney Herkner; members of the committee are to meet in that city on May 27.

The group as it now stands is composed of law enforcement agency representatives, the Redwood City council, and interested citizens.

"At the first meeting of the committee is was determined to expand its membership to include representatives of all legislative bodies within the county and representatives of the press," Herkner said.

ITALIAN section of AAUW will meet on May 16 from 1:30 to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Herman Chanowitz, 127 Hedge road, Menlo Park.

Susan Roberts Wins Honor

GRINNELL, Iowa — Miss Susan Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland B. Roberts of 88 Snowden avenue, Atherton, has been appointed to the Baffle Board of her residence hall at Grinnell College for the coming year.

Baffle Board members are upperclass women who assist the hall presidents in residence hall planning and administration.

Miss Roberts, a freshman at Grinnell, is a 1959 graduate of Menlo-Atherton High School. During the coming summer, Miss Roberts is to serve as an editorial assistant on the staff of the Menlo Park Recorder.

Explosion Singes Man in EPA

A San Francisco man caught in the explosion of gasoline vapors at 2236 Ralmar avenue, East Palo Alto, on Sunday escaped with singed hair and reddened skin, the Menlo Park Fire District reported.

He was Claude Harmon, who was cautioned by firemen against using gasoline as a cleaner in the vicinity of a water heater.

Young Driver Flunks Test, Hits Garage

Four-year-old Earl McClure decisively flunked his first driving test last week.

He was the operator, more or less, of a car that 1) ripped up 65 feet of fence, 2) careened across a lawn and 3) smacked into a garage at 1290 Cypress street, East Palo Alto, Friday afternoon.

Earl wasn't hurt, but his pride—along with the car and the garage—was damaged.

Earl's mother, Mrs. Charles E. McClure, 1260 Cypress, said she had parked the car with Earl inside and went into a neighbor's house for a brief moment. She said the ignition had been turned off.

Highway Patrol officers said Earl apparently turned the key on and promptly discovered that driving a car when you are just so high presents a few problems. They said they planned "no prosecution."

Miss Landen Aids Symposium

Lucie Landen, music consultant for the Menlo Park city schools, has been asked to take part in a string symposium to be held in the Music building of the San Rafael High School May 13. This will be an in-service meeting for elementary and secondary schools of Marin county.

Serving as moderator for the symposium will be Dr. Wolfgang Kuhn of Stanford who will also conduct a string workshop, sponsored by the Symphony Guild of Marin, in which he will discuss techniques and materials.

Miss Landen has been asked to discuss "Starting Viola Players in the Elementary Schools."

ELECTED TO BOARD

Mrs. B. W. Murphy of Menlo Park and Mrs. Curry Mancini of Portola Valley recently were elected as new directors of the San Mateo county Tuberculosis and Health association.

Appointed . . .
. . . recently to the position of manager of engineering of the Electronic Systems Division of Dalmo Victor Company is Arthur P. Notthoff Jr., of 19 Nancy way, Menlo Park. In his new position, Notthoff will be responsible for design engineering and management of all research and development projects for the division. Notthoff joined Dalmo Victor in 1949 as a research engineer, after receiving a master's degree in electrical engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Localite Heads For Italy Campus

Shelley G. Smith, child of Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey Smith of 4900 Alpine road in Portola Valley, is one of 80 Stanford University students designated to leave in September for Stanford's overseas campus in Florence, Italy.

The Florentine campus, on the edge of the city at the Villa San Paolo, will be dedicated in October. It is one of three self-supporting overseas campuses established by Stanford.

Professor Wayne S. Vucinich of Menlo Park, a member of the Stanford history department, will be in residence in Florence during the fall term.

Easter Seal Drive Short, To Continue

Drive for funds to support operation of the Rehabilitation and Research Center for Cripped Children and Adults of San Mateo County will continue through the month of May, it was announced today by Frank Draeger and Mayor William Lawson, chairmen of the Menlo Park drive.

So far $31,528 has been received in response to the Easter Seal appeal by mail, which went to every resident of Menlo Park and San Mateo County. The goal for operation of the center, in Burlingame, is $50,000.

"While the actual Easter Seal sale is completed, we simply do not have enough funds to operate the center and help the 12,000 handicapped persons in San Mateo County throughout the year, unless more contributions are received," Draeger and Lawson pointed out.

"We are confident that many who forgot to send in their contribution will do so now, knowing the dire need for help. Contributions should be mailed to Easter Seal Society, 1764 Marco Polo way, Burlingame, or simply in care of your local postmaster."

emand Better uttons Urge ation's Cleaners

Buttons, the strictly functional and the highly decorative types, continue to pose a roblem occasionally for both e dry cleaner and the customer.

Only a few buttons cause roblems, but the damage is gnificant enough for the dryeaner's trade association, he National Institute of Dryeaning, to issue bulletins arning its members of varis hazards.

Button damage problems ll into two classes: (1) button dyes which transfer stains fabrics and (2) buttons hich disappear or become maged themselves.

An extensive study by the stitute of nine different asses of buttons shows that aining usually occurs from ttons made of these materials: acetate, acrylic, celluid, ivory nut, and leather. sein buttons cause the most ains. The wide variety of marials used in button making one reason why even the ost expert drycleaner finds it fficult to recognize instantly the types. Unfortunately, is also just plain impractical r the drycleaner to test ery single button.

Some buttons dissolve in rycleaning solvent. If the eaner suspects this might ppen, he removes all the ttons before cleaning, rews them afterwards.

OMPETITION AUSES PROBLEMS

Button dyers tell the Institute that, with some exceptions, it is possible to dye most any kind of button a st color and report much rogress along these lines. ompetition, however, often events them from getting a ice for their work which ll assure consistently dendable color performance.

This can be such a headhe to customers that many tail and garment manufacring firms insist on colorst buttons despite the additional cost. Lacquering the ttons after they've been ed usually assures colorstness. One sure way to get ese lacquered buttons is to k for them. If enough wary nsumers insist on fool-proof ttons one more problem ll be eliminated.

If a garment is to give you tisfactory service be sure at ornaments, beads and ttons are dry cleanable or sily removable.

potted Your LOTHES? ift - Don't Scrape!

Many folks find they can rdly get through a week, a y, or even a meal, without illing something on their othes.

When the inevtitable hapns take this word of advice om the National Institute of rycleaning; lift—don't scrape the offending blob from ur clothes. If you do the tural thing and scrape it off u'll make matters worse for u'll help to rub it in.

After you've lifted, what en? Nothing, says the Institute. If the fabric will take you might try sponging th a small amount of cool ater, but don't even try this less you're absolutely sure ater won't harm the dye or nish of the fabric. It is saft to let a professional clean- remove most spots, the Institute says.

One Man Arrested:

Fight Attracts Crowd—and Host of Policemen

An altercation that attracted a huge crowd of spectators brought law enforcement officers from the Sheriff's Office, Menlo Park, Palo Alto and the Highway Patrol to the scene—near a Willow road tavern—last Saturday.

The crowd was watching a fight that eventually resulted in the arrest of John Sisk, 21, of San Francisco, by Sheriff's deputies.

A total of 19 law enforcement vehicles rolled to the scene. Police estimated that crowd at between 200 and 300 persons.

Before the crowd dispersed completely, another man was reported stabbed in another fight at 1209 Willow road, but he was taken away by friends and his name was not recorded.

Menlo Park Police Chief George Potter said the four-jurisdiction response was the first he'd heard of since becoming chief.

The fight that started it all was apparently the outgrowth of a disturbance at the home of Fred Campbell, 44, 1257 Jervis avenue. A house party was in progress there.

Sheriff's deputies stopped a car described by Campbell as containing troublemakers. Seeing the big crowd, they called for assistance, and other jurisdictions sent patrol cars in.

Bottles were smashed all over the pavement at Willow road and Newbridge avenue, deputies reported.

Sisk was arrested on suspicion of throwing a bottle through the window of a car. His was the only arrest made.

An hour later, deputies came upon a fight behind a market with 30 men allegedly battling. A second call for assistance dispersed the crowd but not before the reported stabbing took place.

Homefeld to Preside Saturday At Military Government Meet

Lt. Col. Melville J. Homfeld—better known here as superintendent of the Menlo Park City School District—will serve as toastmaster Saturday night at the closing banquet of the 13th annual Military Government Association Conference in the Sheraton-Palace Hotel.

The annual conference, first to be held in San Francisco, is being sponsored by the local chapter of the Military Government Association and the 351st Civil Affairs Area Headquarters "A" Unit, which meets every Monday night in Mountain View.

Homfeld is a staff officer with the 351st.

Col. Richard F. Locke, Jr., of Los Altos is commanding officer of the unit and also national president of the association. He will serve as general chairman of the conference.

The 351st Army Reserve unit is one of three such high level units in the country and is made up of more than 200 carefully selected Bay Area business and professional leaders in such fields as education, business administration, public safety, public health, communications, etc.

These men and women, serving as officers, enlisted men, and WACS, meet weekly year round to study the latest methods of assisting local, state, and national governments of foreign countries in re-establishing themselves during and following occupation.

In addition to the local 351st unit there are only two other such Army Reserve units, one in Washington, D.C. and one in New York City. Once each year, at the association's annual conference, military and civilian leaders gather to discuss the progress and plans of civil affairs activities and responsibilities throughout the world.

Visiting dignitaries 'who will attend the meetings this weekend include George H. Roderick, assistant secretary of the army; Maj. Gen. A. D. Mead, chief of civil affairs for the army; and Vice Adm. (ret.) Thomas G. Inglis.

Representatives of the Sixth Army and Fifteenth Army Corps, as well as delegates from Civil Affairs Units throughout the country, will be on hand for the Saturday meetings that will include a panel discussion on civil affairs.

Principal speaker at the evening banquet will be Dr. A. H. Batchelder, vice presidena and general manager of dent and general manager of tory in Berkeley, who will give an illustrated talk on "Energy In A Changing World".

Another localite active in the 351st is Col. H. A. Dunker of the Allstate Insurance Company office here, who serves as public information officer.

As We See It:

Safety Warning Is Timely For Bicyclists and Motorists

The Menlo Park Police Department and the Menlo Park District Association of Insurance Agents once again are handing out brochures on safety to young bicyclists of the area.

The warning program – in addition to regular police safety education efforts – is a timely one.

With the long summer evenings now upon us, we notice the annual upsurge of youthful after-suppertime bicyclists turning up on area streets. With summer vacation, too, will come the call of the "open road" for many an out-of-school youngster.

But, while safe riding habits can save the lives of young bicyclists, it is time for motorists, too, to remind themselves that they have a responsibility.

No amount of education by police or parents can insure against the careless moment when some youngster forgets one of the rules of safety. If you, as a driver, happen along with your automobile just at that moment, tragedy can result.

Now is the time to remind yourself that a careful driver must always be on the alert for the unexpected. If a child is killed or injured, the tragedy will be no less because the fault did not lie with you.

It's Beauty Queen Time —And Raiding Has Begun

In years gone by, we have chuckled complacently, nonchalantly polished our finger nails on our lapels and cast sidelong glances at the plight of communities surrounding Menlo Park.

Year after year, we have watched such "furriners" frantically seeking beauty queens for their various pageants and community shows. And year after year they wind up turning to Menlo Park for their reigning beauties.

Well, it's starting again, now that spring is here. We note that four of Menlo Park's loveliest are competing for the title of Queen of the Redwood City Rodeo. Well naturally! Where beauty is concerned – both in landscape and in feminine residents – Menlo Park has it.

Come on over fellows! The pickings are fine!

Science Is Doing Well —How About the Arts?

The individual with well-rounded interests always has been the leader of human progress.

An appreciation of the arts as well as of science usually has been the trademark of the genius who contributes to the betterment of mankind.

How are we doing in this area to encourage our children, the leaders of the future, to develop this type of balanced personality?

This week, residents of the Menlo Park area might take heart. They can look back to last weekend's science fair in the Menlo Park City School District and forward to Sunday's annual spring concert of the all-city orchestra, drawn from all schools of the district.

Ennio Ciolli, director of the district's science program, pointed out that many of the science exhibits were oriented in the direction of research. That bodes well for America's position in a highly technological future.

Another apparently good omen on the artistic side is the honor achieved by a Menlo-Atherton senior, Steven Prince, whose outstanding piano exhibition last Saturday brought him top honors from among 175 youthful mid-Peninsula musicians . . . and a chance at one of three music scholarships to be awarded in Northern California.

But there is a shadow over our happy contemplation of young Prince's victory. It is reported that he has studied piano for about seven years, practices five to six hours a day, in addition to maintaining a high scholastic rating. This is the picture of an unusually dedicated young man, who has set himself to achieve high artistic goals with or without encouragement from the educational system.

And note that Prince used to play in the Menlo-Atherton orchestra . . . until that activity was abandoned last year because of lack of interest.

Last weekend a successful science fair; next weekend an orchestra concert by elementary school pupils. Good.

But what will become of this artistic interest, encouraged at the grade school level, when these youngsters move up to high school? Will parental concern with science, mathematics and technological proficiency divert them, as it has many of their elder brothers and sisters away from development of these facets of a well-rounded intellect?

We hope not. This nation needs technicians. Even more, however, it needs men of broad human understanding, men who can take cold laboratory facts and convert them into humanitarian meaning.

That type of man needs more than proficiency in higher mathematics or a knowledge of amino acids. He needs appreciation of the cultural skills that make possible the progress of the democratic ideal.

Councilman Vaile Andrus had a puzzler for other city fathers Tuesday night.

He said on various occasions he's been cornered by a charming lady at social gatherings who, unfortunately, was of a single mind regarding conversation: she wanted to know why the fire plug near her home was painted yellow.

Apparently, it clashed with with her drapes.

The answer (?) came from the audience where developer Harry Arnold was reclining. Arnold told the Council that, at great expense, the state fish and game department has discovered that yellow is the color most easily seen by animals. Including dogs.

"An 'acci-dental' error," we replied, "but 'hole-y' understandable."

Municipal Report:

City Street, Parks Workers In Midst of Busy Season Now

This is the busy season for Menlo Park's streets and parks department.

Workers were particularly in evidence last week, as they placed some 20 tubbed trees in the downtown area; they were in evidence early this week as they resurfaced Yale road between Creek drive and Middle avenue.

They'll be busy with a multitude of smaller jobs throughout town during the next few weeks, as they get the various city parks ready for summer's heavy use by the area's children. But besides these regular seasonal jobs, they've put in a lot of time planting trees and shrubs which won't reach full maturity and beauty for years yet.

The trees placed in the downtown area were purchased by the city out of sales tax funds. Their installation culminates years of talk by city officials and by Chamber of Commerce members.

Leonard Klein, assistant superintendent of public works who heads both the street and parks departments ,says that the trees situated in the tubs aren't of the same variety that the city ordinarily would install along residential streets.

They include olive, magnolia, Japanese privet and a variety of laurel, and were selected for their vitality in such restricted areas as the pots in which they're situated.

The city street department inherits the job of watering them throughout the dry seasons of the year, too.

Recently completed was a job of planting in the Stanford Hills subdivision. Although not all of the trees the city plans to put in that area were set out this year, the ones paid for in the current budget were.

This may leave a few blank spots for another twelvemonth but the street and parks department tries to spread its activities throughout the city, to prevent imbalance.

Another job recently completed was the setting-out of about 100 shrubs at the Belle Haven park site.

Trees were planted there several months ago and the shrubs planted at this time are new also. But before the park is completely developed, both should be of sufficient size and maturity to provide both shelter and beauty.

Playground work isn't entirely confined to city parks.

The city has a cooperative agreement with the Menlo Park School District, and in keeping with this, does considerable work on the various school grounds in the western part of the city.

This week, for instance, the workers surfaced a tennis court at Oak Knoll school.

The money for "capital improvements" off of the streets comes out of sales tax funds but work like the paving of Yale road comes from the street maintenance budget.

In all, the street and parks departments have about 20 workers, including an employee who's designated a member of the water department staff but who works on other jobs whenever his schedule permits.

The "streets and parks department" also includes a mechanic who spends a considerable portion of his time working on the vehicles operated by the police department.

The work done by these "floating" workers has to be charged to the proper account and this results in some fairly intricate bookkeeping, but city officials point out that the workers stay happier when they have a variety of jobs.

the Scoop

The owners and management of the Park and Guild theaters in Menlo Park this week announced the opening of a new foreign film policy theater in Palo Alto.

The Cardinal theater in that city, situated facing California avenue, is to be renamed the Fine Arts and is to be refurbished and air conditioned in time for opening under the new policy May 18.

Menlo Youth Victor in Music Contest

Steven T. Prince, son of Col. and Mrs. C. M. Prince, 430 Claremont way, last Saturday became one of two Mid-Peninsula youths who will go to San Francisco State College June 4 to compete for one of three music scholarships being offered by the Music Trade Association of Northern California.

Prince and Lee Anthony Nickels of Palo Alto topped 175 young musicians in preliminary judging to represent the area included in the Sequoia High School and Palo Alto Unified School districts.

In the June 4 final competition, Prince will be competing against other pianists for a six-week, all-expense scholarship to the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara.

Nickels, an oboe player, will compete in the instrumental division for one of two two-week scholarships.

Last Saturday's competition was conducted among 21 area finalists. Both top winners received a $25 gift order and a tape recording of his prize-winning selection from Richard Flint of the Flint Music Company, Palo Alto, where the competition was held.

Judges were Edward C. Brown, 28 Berenda way, head of the music department at Menlo-Atherton High School; George W. Paulsen, 423 Central avenue, music supervisor at the Veteran's Administration Hospital here and a teacher at Ravenswood High School and Flint, who resides at 426 Concord drive.

Prince, a senior at Menlo-Atherton, has been studying piano for about seven years. Besides practicing five or six hours a day, he maintains a straight "A" average in his school work and recently received his life membership in the California Scholarship Federation.

He played in Menlo-Atherton's orchestra until that activity was abandoned at the school for lack of interest among the students. He recently was among winners in the annual "Search for Talent" contest sponsored by the Exchange Clubs.

Future plans include a possible scholarship to a major college, followed by a career in music.

Prince's contest-winning selection Saturday was Chopin's Scherzo in B Flat Minor, Opus 31.

Kepler Heads Peace Group

Roy Kepler, Menlo Park bookstore proprietor, is chairman of a committee now forming The Peninsula Peace Center.

The center is planned to provide a channel of communication with an opportunity for joint effort to persons of the area who are concerned with problems of peace in the nuclear age.

County Comment:

Transit Plan 'Savings' Claims: The Truth . . . or Propaganda?

By FLOYD F. McCUE
Editor and Publisher, Redwood City Star-Advertiser

An official of the San Francisco Bay Area Rapid Transit District recently warned that "a grave danger exists that too much of San Mateo county's valuable land tax base will be 'devoured' by future freeway construction," indicating that a similar situation would not occur if the transit system is approved. Granted that highway lands do cost a lot of money, but what about the parking areas the transit district plans to grab off in the hearts of the Peninsula cities? Certainly that land will be even more costly than either the bayside or hill area rights-of-way.

Another claim of the district officials cites the problem of San Mateo county cities being shut off from the downtown area, resulting in loss of business, etc. Yet the transit district plans to shut off Redwood City's main downtown crossing with overpasses at other crossings.

The same problems will arise in other cities, along with the problems of paying for these improvements. As we understand it, the district plans huge off-street parking areas at all station stops—and the parking will be FREE to the users.

We have never been able to understand why commuters should have free parking all day long while cities spend millions to provide off-street parking for shoppers—and in most of the cities the parking meters collect a fee for that privilege. The exception at present is in San Carlos and Menlo Park.

Can any of these cities afford to give up highly taxed land for more free parking? Redwood City for one cannot, we are sure. In other words, we think the transit district officials are trying to confuse the issues and at the same time propagandize citizens into voting for the huge billion-dollar bond issue when and if it comes to a vote.

IS IT CHEAP?

With tentative approval given for a train system over the Golden Gate Bridge, the transit district may now run well beyond the billion-dollar figure. This might be a "nut" taxpayers could crack but when you have to add at least another billion for interest charges over the years, plus another property tax for operation deficiencies we wonder.

Rapid transit may be the cheapest means of travel, as officials claim, but to the hundreds of thousands of taxpayers who have no need for it the whole plan becomes questionable in a big way. Will it make up to the taxpayers in taxes paid by increased business and more industries? We doubt it. We certainly hate to see San Mateo county throw more money into the engineering and propaganda work. The three or four cents on the tax rate now paid out may be small but it adds up to a figure of about a quarter million a year here.

SALARY FIGHT

Speaking of lowered taxes, it appears that the board of supervisors is in earnest when members say government costs will be cut to the bone THIS year. The action of the Civil Service Commission in granting salary increases to only 180 employees has other workers boiling mad.

They are massing (employees association and the union) to battle for at least a one-step hike which would come to 5.7 per cent. And as good as the salary stabilization might be to the taxpayers, we would guess that the picture might change.

If other area counties follow the action by the state and in San Francisco, San Mateo county may have to go along. The charter provides that the salary schedules must be comparable to other counties as well as private industry. Budget time is still far enough off to bring the one-step hike for all workers.

SUPERVISOR RACE

With the primary election only a month away, it is time to get into a discussion of the candidates in the county races. Most of the attention will center around the three supervisor races, although Assemblyman Carl A. Britschgi hopes to wrap up his re-election through a write-in campaign. He might just be strong enough to do it, too, considering the apparent weaknesses of his two opponents. The races for state senator and U.S. congress must necessarily go into the general election in November due to the ban on cross-filing in the state.

The betting odds are getting stronger that William M. (Bill) Werder will take it all in the primary against his two opponents. The county-wide strength he has shown in previous elections shows no signs of diminishing, but instead may be increasing. Veteran Alvin Hatch of Half Moon Bay seems to be a cinch for another four-year term.

We can't hold as much optimism for Supervisor Thomas Callan. Most people seem assured that he will have to face a run-off with James Fitzgerald of San Bruno in November. Tom is a fast comer in the stretch, however, and still could come out on top in June.

In a column a few weeks ago we seem to have implied that three of the candidates hoping to oust incumbent supervisors were members of the troublesome grand jury of two years ago. We meant to say that the candidates in question were rumored to be backed by members of the former grand jury. Only one candidate actually was on the jury.

The files of the Menlo Park Recorder reveal that 25 years ago this week, the following items, here reproduced exactly as first published, were news in the young community:

May 10, 1935:

With a gypsy camp as its motif Sequoia Union High School is today celebrating its annual Campus Day during which the school and campus are cleaned up by the students and a carnival spirit prevails.

The students in their gaily colored costumes were assigned to do special work during their third period, the boys working on the campus and the girls cleaning the rooms and halls, with a teacher in charge of each division. After the work is completed the students will be rewarded with free lunch tickets.

The evening dance will be decorated to carry out the gypsy motif and will be held on the tennis courts. Large bonfires and colorful decorations will be features, according to Bernice Gardner, commissioner of girls' activities.

Big Residential Project Seen

May 11, 1950:

Described by brokers as the largest single real estate transaction in Menlo Park history in terms of dollars, plans were disclosed today for a $2,250,000 home building development on 28 acres immediately east of Hillview school.

The announcement was made after sale of the land, which lies between Santa Cruz and Valparaiso avenues. Revenue stamps on the deed indicated a price of $250,000.

The seller was Hillview Manor Corp., a corporation of the Coastwise Construction Company of Menlo Park. Purchaser was John Rutherdale of San Carlos.

Realtors said that plans call for construction of approximately 100 homes on quarter-acre lots . . .

Homes will be priced from $18,500 to $25,000 . . .

School Trustees Okay Draperies

School District trustees last week authorized the spending of $1200 for drapes for the new central office building of the district, at 555 Glenwood avenue.

The sum, School District Superintendent Mel Homfeld said, will be spent for vertical venetian blinds for windows along the south side of the building.

They are needed mainly for light control, he said.

DEN 5, PACK 4 VISITS RECORDER

Eight members of Den 5, Pack 4, Cub Scouts from Fremont School last Thursday visited the offices of the Menlo Park Recorder and toured its production facilities.

Those making the tour were Eric von Ladau, Charles Ashmore, Eddy Berg, Steven Klebe, Richard Burton, David Potts, Stanley Searles and David Davis. The boys were accompanied by Mrs. Ernest Berg, den mother.

Towle's talk is entitled "Radioisotopes at Work for Agriculture," and will include a discussion of radioisotopes and ionizing radiation in agriculture and food preservation.

A portion of the presentation is based on SRI studies for the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. In addition to agriculture these studies have involved radioisotopes and radiation in industry and medicine.

Markley Names Menlo Aide

Tom B. Markley, candidate for election as Superior Court Judge, Office Number 3, has appointed James M. Cooke of 38 Palm court, Menlo Park, as chairman of his campaign committee in the southern county area.

Cooke, an attorney, will work with F. Hershell Campbell, Markley's general campaign manager. Campbell, also an attorney, is former mayor of the City of San Mateo.

Any Mosquitos In Your Yard?

If people in San Mateo County don't take notice of their own back-yard mosquito-breeding areas, the county mosquito abatement district's tax rate may be forced upwards, district director John Chaffet reported to Menlo Park city councilmen last week.

Chaffet said the district is beginning a drive to "educate the public" to the fact that exploding population is going to require additional district expenditures if residents don't work to clean up the breeding places on their own property.

The district's present tax rate is 1.74 cents per $100 of assessed value.

"It's up to all of us to watch out for faulty sewage lines, stagnant water and catch basins where mosquitoes may breed," Chaffet declared.

Bear Horsehiders Make Annual Surge

First Across—As Usual . . .

. . . comes Menlo-Atherton's Dick Burns, bellying into the string in the last gasp of his record-shattering 9.7-second 100-yard dash in Friday's South Peninsula Athletic League track trials at Stanford. This was the fastest non-wind aided 100 in Peninsula prep history. Burns also set a new SPAL meet record in the 220 with a 21.8.

Not Many in Trials, but:

Spikers Try for Marks

Perhaps the South Peninsula Athletic League tracksters were saving themselves in last Friday's SPAL trials at Angell Field at Stanford, judging from the comparatively small number of new records set.

If they were, with an eye toward tomorrow's finals at Angell, then track fans had better show up early. The SPAL cindermen time and again have proven themselves the Peninsula's best, and with the finalists going all-out tomorrow, it'll be a show well worth the admission price. Meet time is 3:45 p.m.

It was no surprise, really, but Menlo-Atherton's acesprinter Dick Burns set two of the five varsity meet records Friday, a very flashy 9.7 in the 100-yard dash and a 21.8 in the 220.

Willie Waller's 49.4 440 also was one of his now standard performances for another new mark in the SPAL meet, although slower than the 49.1 district meet record he set the week before.

It also came as no shock to see the SPAL dual meet champion Ravenswood Class B sprinters qualify en masse for the finals. Frank Williams (70 high hurdles), John Smith (660), and Ray Askew (75) were winners as well as qualifires in other events, along with Hardy Watkins (330) and Mike Phelan (75 and 150).

Woodside's Henry McGuire came up with the top B show of the day, however, with a terrific 35.8 record time in the 330. Henry clipped a full .6 off the old mark.

There were no relay events run, but the varsity foursomes will get their chance Saturday in the annual West Coast Relays at Fresno. Starting time there is 10 a.m.

Burns, who has 9.8 and 9.9 times this year in the 100, also has a previous top of 21.2 in the 220, .7 faster than the SPAL meet.

Other varsity qualifiers were M-A's Hugh Smith (440), Waller (100), Jim Cheatham (broad jump, 100 and 220), Layette Hayes (880), Don Cony (180 HH) and Larry Kendy (shot put and discus). Ravenswood's only varsity qualifier was Chuck Elame in the 880, winning his heat easily in 2:01.9.

These Will Run Tomorrow . . .

Tribe Nudges Acorn Mermen

The big difference between the Sequoia and Menlo School swim teams turned out, as expected, to be Sequoia's fabled Marty Hull, who led the Cherckees to a 53-54 dual meet victory over the Acorns in the Sequoia pool Monday. This was a newly-scheduled meet. Menlo's regular season ended last Thursday.

Hull swam to a terrific 53.8 timing in the 100-yard butterfly, .7 less than the old record and marking the third event this year in which the Sequoia junior has set a new national record. His 100-yard breaststroke time of 1:05.1 and his pending 22.3 record are the other two.

He also anchored the Tribe 200 freestyle relay team in its rapid 1:34.8 and the 200 medley relay in its 1:47.7, both making them eligible for High School All-American mention. Menlo's runnerup freestyle relay team also may make it their time was a good 1:50.4.

Bob Haire (200 free), Jim Meakin (100 breast), Ed Dilkes (100 free) and Pete Whitely (200 individual medley) were individual winners for the Acorns.

A Monstrous Cut . . .

. . . was had at the ball by Menlo College first baseman Stan Roden, but all he got was a piece of it in the first inning of the Oaks' 6-1 victory over San Jose CC Friday at Menlo. The Oaks went on to gather nine hits, however, in winning their 12th CCJC game without a loss. They clinched the CCJC title last Tuesday and head into the JC playoffs next Tuesday. —Recorder photo

Nine-Inning Win Is 3rd Straight

It's very doubtful that the Menlo-Atherton Bears could catch the Sequoia Cherokees in the South Peninsula Athletic League varsity baseball race, but the suddenly charged-up Bruins are going all-out to see how close they can come.

Marty Christiansen's low liner that leftfielder Bud Mitchell apparently lost in the sun in the last of the ninth inning for an error was all the Bears needed to win their third straight SPAL battle Tuesday, 4-3, over Cubberley at Flood Park.

Coach Frank Bettencourt's Bears go at it with the Sequoians tomorrow at 3:45 p.m. at Flood. The Cherokees lead the loop with a 6-1 mark at present while the Bears are 3-3 and in third. Sequoia holds two victories over M-A this year, 11-2 in the M-A Easter tournament final and 6-3 in their first-round SPAL game.

With the way the Bears are going, however, be ready for anything. Tuesday it'll be a return bout with Palo Alto, down there at 3:45. Righthander Larry Krenzin will start for M-A against Sequoia.

It was real come-from-behind stuff for the Bears Tuesday. Going into the seventh and final regulation inning they trailed 5-3, but Kent Bach's single, Al Pryal's double and Tom Barnes' single fixed that. With two down in the ninth, Harry Hart singled, stole second and went to third on a bad throw from the catcher. Christiansen then worked the count to 3-2 before hitting his soft liner near the left field foul line that Mitchell missed, scoring Hart with the clincher.

After a Mighty Upset:

M-A Netters in SPAL Tourney; Boettcher Names Participants

Although defending champion Sequoia will go into today's South Peninsula Athletic League tournament semifinals as the favorite, Menlo-Atherton's surprising netters figure on having something to say about who goes home with the biggest loot of trophies.

Coach Art Boettcher's Bears can draw their optimism from their 5-2 upset victory over the Sequoians last Wednesday that ended the regular SPAL season, leaving them tied for the title, both with 7-1 records.

Each of the five SPAL teams may enter two singles and two doubles matches, but some may not enter all of these if they don't feel strong enough in any of the departments. Entries and drawings for ladders were made yesterday.

The simifinals begin at 2 p.m. today at the Stanford tennis courts. Finals will be at the Sequoia High courts tomorrow at 3:15 p.m.

Boettcher this week listed Dick Abele and Mike Flinn as his singles participants. The teams of Bob Kennedy—George Pentz and Bill Darrough—Dan Armstrong will be the Bear doubles tandems.

The biggest upset in league history is what the Bears went home with last week. They ended a string of 28 straight SPAL wins by the Cherokees, dating back to 1956, and thwarted a fourth straight undisputed championship for the Sequoians. The Tribe had beaten M-A 5-2 three times earlier this season, once in SPAL play and twice in practice matches. But somehow Boettcher's glum outlook at the start of the season just hasn't been substantiated. They're the co-champs now.

The first doubles team of Kennedy and Pentz won to stay unbeaten in league play and in singles, Darrough and Steve Morgan shot down Sequoia's Bob Ramirez and Marty Kupps for their first league setbacks of the season.

A little of the luster was worn off Monday when Peninsula League champion Burlingame handed the Bears a 7-0 setback, their first shutout of the year, at Burlingame. These two met again yesterday at M-A.

SINGLES

Newton (S) d. Abele 6-4, 7-5; Kirk (S) d. Flinn 1-6, 6-2, 6-4; Armstrong (M) d. Lawton 8-6, 6-3; Darrough (M) d. Ramirez 6-4, 6-2; Morgan (M) d. Kupps 6-3, 4-6, 6-3.

DOUBLES

Pentz-Kennedy (M) d. J. Randlett-T. Randlett 11-9, 6-2; Brown-Couch (M) d. Gibson-DeClerck 4-6, 6-3, 6-3.

SCORE: Menlo-Atherton 5, Sequoia 2.

Won Final CCJC Doubleheader:

JC Diamond Playoffs Begin at Menlo Tuesday

There's just one practice game left on the schedule for coach Jack Rowley's Menlo College Oaks this week before they go, for the second straight year, into the blue-chip playoffs leading to the state junior college baseball crown.

The Coast Conference champion Oaks polished off their best league season ever Tuesday, whipping Cabrillo JC in both ends of a doubleheader, 4-0 and 2-1. They finished with a 14-0 Coast Conference mark and are 16-2 overall so far.

This last practice game finds the Oaks going to the Stanford freshman diamond for a tilt with the Indian frosh tomorrow at 3 p.m.

It's home again Tuesday for the state JC regional playoffs, the quarterfinals leading to the big one later this month. The Oaks will be the hosts at 3 p.m. to the winner of the Golden Valley Conference title, to de decided this Saturday in a doubleheader at Sacramento between league-leading American River JC and runnerup Yuba College, one game behind.

"I'm confident we'll win this one," Rowley said yesterday, "but you never can tell. It doesn't pay to overlook anybody in these playoffs."

Last year the Oaks made it to the Northern California playoff, only to be rubbed out 5-0 in a perfect, no-hit, no-run game by Stockton JC's Phil Swimley in a game they're probably still talking about over there.

If the Oaks do win Tuesday, their next action in the semifinal round will be next Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21, against the winner of the Big Eight—Central Valley Conference regional playoff game Tuesday. Location of the game will be decided by a flip of the coin, Rowley said. There will be one game Friday and two Saturday if necessary, in the best 2-of-3 series.

After that, it's the big one for all the marbles, the weekend of May 27-28.

The Rowleymen's timely hitting put them ahead in the late innings of both games Tuesday and some airtight pitching kept them there.

Bob Talbott's solo home run in the sixth frame of the opener was the loud blast of the contest. Two singles, a walk and an overthrow from the catcher let in the first two Menlo tallies in the fourth. Dom Ascani and Dave Hopkins slammed back-to-back doubles in the ninth for another one.

Stan Roden won the first tilt, going six innings and fanning nine. Roden was bruised up in a collision at first base, however, and had to be rested for the rest of the day.

Hopkins finished up the first game and went the first five innings of the second, before Al Eber finished up in the seven-inning nightcap.

An error, a walk and singles by Ascani and Talbott produced the Menlo runs in the fifth.

The Oaks blasted the San Jose CC Jaguars 6-1 at Menlo Friday. Eber started and won that one. This was the second victory of the week over the Jags. The first was the 8-1 pennant-clincher last Tuesday.

Wreck Wildcats Hopes

Revenge is sweet, especially when it's as hair-raising as the 1-0 victory the Menlo-Atherton Bears posted over their cross-town nemesis, the Woodside Wildcats, in a South Peninsula Athletic League battle Friday.

It also was retribution for Bear righthander Larry Krenzin, the victim of a two-run seventh inning that gave the Cats a 2-1 win in the clubs' first encounter last month. Krenzin was in trouble almost all the way, but was untouchable when he had to be. The Cats left 10 men on base, seven of them on second or third.

Shortstop Danny Partemi scored the only tally after singling in the first inning. A high throw at second on his attempted steal allowed him to advance to third, from where he scored on catcher Kent Bach's single.

No less than four times Krenzin was faced with two runners on and less than two out. In the fourth they were loaded on singles by Bob Bitticks and Tom Pelio and a walk to Jim Edwards, and nobody out. A strikeout, a missed squeeze play resulting in a forceout at home and a flyout got him out of that one.

Krenzin fanned nine, but five walks and seven hits kept things hot right down to the end. Bittick's no newcomer to hard luck, struck out seven, walked only one and gave up four hits in going the distance for the loss. The Bruins had only six baserunners, Partemi the only one getting past second base.

Bitticks and second sacker Tom Pelio each went 2-for-3 at the plate for the Cats, accounting for many of Krenzin's troubles. Partemi kept Bitticks from a perfect day by grabbing a fifth-inning grounder up the middle and throwing him out to end a Cat threat with runners on second and third. Partemi went 2-for-2 himself.

SAN LEANDRO CLOBBERS BEARS

Bill Lorton set a new school record of 1:58.9 in the 200-yard freestyle Tuesday, but it wasn't enough as a visiting San Leandro High swim team clobbered the Menlo-Atherton varsity 65-29. Bob Laird's 27.6 50 butterfly was the best Class B mark as the Bear lightweights won 54-21. However, San Leandro set four new M-A pool records.

8-7 SETBACK

Woodside's freshman baseball nine was clubbed 8-7 last Thursday by the Sunnyvale frosh at the Redwood City Recreation Center field.

Out . . .

. . . at first base, Woodside's Cort Smith tries a desperate slide to prevent the inevitable. Menlo-Atherton first baseman Dave Copenhagen took the throw to complete the double play that ended the SPAL game Friday and gave M-A a 1-0 win over the Wildcats. Smith's grounder to Harry Hart at second forced Dave Drotar.

Cats Sunk In 12

For all practical purposes, the South Peninsula Athletic League baseball title hopes of the Woodside Wildcats came to an end amid an umpire's changed decision and a 12th inning rally that gave the Palo Alto Vikings a 4-3 victory Tuesday.

This was the third SPAL loss for coach Bob Poole's Cats, and all but eliminated them from a contending position behind the front-running Sequoia Cherokees. They're now 4-3 with three to go. The Tribe is 6-1 with four left.

The Wildcats take on Cubberley at Redwood City's Community Park tomorrow at 3:45 p.m. to try to stay on the track. A Sequoia victory over Menlo-Atherton tomorrow will clinch it for the Tribe. It's the Poolemen's turn at the Cherokees Tuesday at Community. If it's over by then the Cats still are good bets for second place, still not bad for a varsity in its first year of operation.

Tied at 2-2 going into the 12th inning, the Wildcats came to life in their half when Bob Bitticks singled, went to third on Dave Drotar's one-baser and came in on Bill Jankord's bunt single. Woodside led 3-2.

In the Paly 12th, two singles and a pitcher's error loaded the bags. Jim Semenoff squeezed home Pete Donovan from third to knot it again. Phil McCowan was out at home on another attempted squeeze.

Ed Hoffacker then hit a roller to Tom Pelio at second base and Pelio's throw to the plate beat Steve Moreno coming in. The ump called Moreno out, but then changed his mind, claiming catcher Jankord pulled his foot off the plate before the catch. And that was it.

McCowan had the honor of going 11 and a third innings for the Vikes and not getting the victory. Hoffacker relieved him in the 12th when he tired and the Cats scored. Bitticks relieved starter Jerry Palmer in the fourth and took the loss.

Wiley, Tabor Hurl Trojan Victory

With Arnold Wiley and Jim Tabor again sharing the mound duties, the Ravenswood Trojan frosh-soph nine rolled to its third SPAL victory of the season Monday and into second place in the standings with a 4-2 decision over Palo Alto on the Paly diamond.

Wiley and Tabor combined on a four-hitter, Tabor weakening in the seventh to allow the two Vike tallies. Riley McWilliams was the loser. Gary Shouse's double was the loud blow for the Trojans, now 3-3 in league play.

Onward and Upward: Rec Department Takes Over as Hunter Safety Sponsor

That popular hunter safety course that's been packing 'em in around the Menlo Park area over the past year got itself a new sponsor this month. The result is that this summer, for the first time, the course will turn up on the agenda of summer activities of the Menlo Park Recreation Department.

★ ★ ★ ★

It'll be put on in cooperation with the Menlo Park Gun Club, the organization that's been sponsoring it all the time, but the Rec Department's organization can lend it streamlining and do it at lower cost, according to Recreation Director Fred Parsons.

Under the Gun Club's chief range officer Ben Shade, the course has become a favorite with both youngsters and adults. Students in the four-day course have numbered 85 and 90, getting instruction and information on all types of hunting procedures and field conditions. Whole troops of boy scouts have earned their marksmanship merit badges through the range firing and firearms lectures in the course. Classes always have been full.

★ ★ ★ ★

The last course, sponsored solely by the Gun Club will begin next week. If you want in, call Shade at DA 2-0590 by Saturday. He'll give you all the dope.

There'll be lecture sessions next Thursday and Friday evenings, range firing Saturday afternoon at the Stanford rifle range and final demonstrations and graduation ceremonies the following Thursday evening.

★ ★ ★ ★

Those completing the course receive certificates of competence from the state Department of Fish and Game and basic rifle certificates from the National Rifle Association. Youngsters 16 nad under have to have the DFG certificate to get a hunting license. It's never too late for the adults to learn something, either.

★ ★ ★ ★

The first Rec Department class will be in July, with another to follow in August. Under this department, there'll be certain advantages. "With the class more or less on city basis, we'll be able to get facilities much quicker and easier," Parsons said this week. "We also will add more instructors, possibly three or four, and eventually I think we can start to increase the program from basic rifle on up into more advanced courses, including archery," he went on.

★ ★ ★ ★

A look at some figures released by the DFG this week shows that such classes are needed. There were 91 hunting casualties in 1959, including 22 fatalities in California. One of the fatalities was a hunter safety instructor and one injury was a fish and game warden.

Surprisingly, good visibility and distance were only coincidental to most of the casualties. Seventy-two per cent of all fatalities and 64 per cent of the non-fatal shootings occurred at a distance of less than ten yards. Seventy-two per cent of the deaths and 97 per cent of the woundings were in clear conditions.

Of the 91 shooters in the accidents, 19 were unlicensed, 12 of these untrained juniors. Nine were hunting out of season and 25 were breaking a fish and game law. Thirty-one shooters received self-inflicted wounds. These do-it-yourselfers accounted for 23 per cent of the deaths in 1959.

Someday this course or something like it may be mandatory for everybody who wants to hunt. Encouragingly, no trained juniors have mistaken a fellow hunter for game. It looks like the hunter safety courses are paying off.

The Latest On the Cats . . .

We can only hope that the bunch of homeless alley cats around the neighborhood of Buckthorne avenue and El Camino Real that disappeared last month are in good homes now.

★ ★ ★ ★

There's been a lot of speculation around town about what happened to them in past weeks, but we finally found this this week—they were chased down and carried off by the SPCA.

This little "family" was that of Mrs. Thomas B. Settle, the Menlo Park lady who's been walking over from her office on Spruce street during her lunch hour for over two years now with two cans of cat food and all the table scraps she could round up.

★ ★ ★ ★

When the Recorder first broke the story three months ago, Mrs. Settle had a "family" of 11, some of which she had nursed out of sickness and all of whom she had fed and kept healthy. A few of the females were in a family way or had kittens hidden somewhere. All were devoted to Mrs. Settle; she was the only one who could pick them up or even come near them.

★ ★ ★ ★

Mrs. Settle has had a stream of contributions of money to help pay for the cat food and offers to give homes to the cats and their offspring. She's stopped wherever she goes with inquiries about the health—and lately the whereabouts—of her brood. She's become known around Menlo Park as the "cat lady."

Four of her cats managed to return the week they disappeared, but they had been chased and had reverted to their shyness around Mrs. Settle. This week she reported that she has six back, but she still has to leave their food and walk away before they'll come out to eat.

★ ★ ★ ★

Thsi family will grow some more though, Mrs Settle said. One of the cats is a mama, but only she knows where her litter is. Another will be before too long.

★ ★ ★ ★

We heard also this week that the national magazine, "Cat" picked up Mrs. Settle's story. A little generosity can go a long way.

We can understand wh ythe SPCA was called in, but despite their good works for the community, it looks to us like another case of misguided charitable intentions. Whoever called them might think about that.

Swim Marks Fall Wholesale

Sequoia High's Marty Hull added two more national swim records to his growing collection and a lot of other South Peninsula Athletic League swimmers grabbed off league records in Friday's SPAL swim championships at Menlo-Atherton pool in the most record-studded SPAL meet yet.

There were 17 of a possible 25 meet marks lowered between the April 29 Trials and the Finals, including six of the 10 varsity marks, all eight Class B records and four of the seven Class C marks.

Carlmont ended Sequoia's three-year domination of the meet by taking the varsity championship, but it was Hull that stole the show. He tied his own prep record 22.3 in the 50-yard free style and did a blazing 1:05.1 in the 100 breaststroke, 1.3 under the national prep record which he shares.

Host Menlo-Atherton's Bears swept to the B crown, boring past SPAL dual meet champion Woodside 82-56. The Bears and the Wildcats set all the B records, with Bob Laird (50 free), Rick Bentley (100 breast), Terry Peterson (100 free) and the 200 freestyle relay team doing the honors for M-A and Bob Plate (50 butterfly), Steve Kohl (100 backstroke) and Bill Kohl (100 individual medley) shining among the Wildcats. The Woodside 200 medley relay team also turned in a record performance but was disqualified for an illegal stroke and the event went to the Bears.

Two varsity records went to Bear natators. Bill Lorton did the 200 freestyle in two minutes flat and the 200 freestyle relay team ran off in 1:53.7.

Sequoia outscored Class C dual meet champ Woodside 4-3 in first places to nose out the Wildcats for the C title, 66-57. The Sequoians set three individual league records while the Cat 100 freestyle relay team copped a record-shattering victory in 49.4.

The North Coast Section Trials will be the next step up the ladder for the SPAL swimmers, next Friday, May 20 at Santa Clara.

Carlmnot, M-A Fall to Cat F-Sers

Coach Don Hazard's Woodside Wildcat frosh-soph nine blasted out two straight victories last week and evened its South Peninsula Athletic eLague record at 3-3.

Lefty Forrest Willis tossed a one-hitter good for a 3-2 victory over the Carlmont Scots at Woodside Thursday and the Cats unleashed a 16-hit attack to bury the visiting Menlo-Atherton Bears 11-2 at home Friday.

Willis struck out 15 Carlmont batters but walked seven, keeping himself in hot water. Bruce Pfeifer hit a double and John Morton got two hits for the winners.

An eight-run fourth inning against three M-A pitchers did the job Friday. Starter Fred Glover took the loss for coach Bill Whitaker's Bears before Dale Winters and John Kemp could get out of the inning. Pfeifer went the route to gain the victory.

Successful Season:

Acorn Swimmers Wrap Up All BCAL Championships

Another good swimming season, complete with a Bay Counties Athletic League title, was wrapped up by coach Bill Wyman's Menlo School Acorns Thursday when they swept to victory in all three divisions of the annual BCAL Championships at the Menlo pool.

Final varsity score was Menlo 99, Lick-Wilmerding 41 and San Rafael Military Academy 25.

The Acorns swam to first place in every event, with three new meet records set and three others equalled along the way.

Top effort, and one of the top 10 in the nation among the preps this year was the Acorns' 200-yard medley relay team's time of 1:51.9. Bob Haire, Jim Meakin, Dave Gregg and Ed Dilkes were the fast foursome.

Haire (200 freestyle), Meakin (100 breast) and Dilkes (100 free) did the record-tying in individual events.

John Deahl smashed the old 400 freestyle mark with a 5:06.1 and Pete Whitely established the record for the first time in the new 200 individual medley with a 2:43.5.

The Acorns' overall mark this year was 9-4, with two of the losses, to Menlo-Atherton and Woodside, being decided in the final relay. The Menlo winners and other placers:

Chris, Yoshi Lead Oaks to CCJC Net Title

Former Davis Cupper Chris Crawford and sidekick Yoshi Minegishi combined their talents as they have all this season to lead Menlo College to a 4-3 victory over Vallejo Saturday on the Falcon courts wrapping up the Oaks' second straight Coast Conference tennis title.

Both clubs entered the match at 4-0 in CCJC play, but Crawford and Minegishi, after each hpolishing off a singles opponent handily, combined for a lopsided doubles victory to put it out of the Falcons' reach. Vallejo set something of a record with their three match wins. The Oaks had outscored their previous CCJC opponents 27-1.

The Oaks go into the Northern California JC tournament today and tomorrow at Modesto.

SINGLES

Crawford (M) d. Carter 6-0, 6-2; Minegishi (M) d. Fabrua 6-0, 6-0; Alfaro (V) d. Mullen 6-3, 6-1; Potter (M) d. Chaffee 6-1, 6-4; Thorpe (V) d. Roos 7-5, 6-2.

DOUBLES

Crawford-Minegishi (M) d. Carter-Alfaro 6-1, 6-2; Chaffee-Thorpe (V) d. Mullen-Potter 10-8, 1-6, 6-4.

SCORE: Menlo 4, Vallejo 3.

PURVIS WINS

Menlo Park's Kirk Purvis posted top speed of 167.91 miles per hour in races at the Fremont drag strip Sunday.

2 More Honors For Cliff

Former Menlo-Atherton golf star Cliff Davis, who now calls Menlo College his alma mater, blazed his way to two more honors this week.

The 1959 Northern California junior champion added the Oakland City tournament trophy to his collection Saturday and fought his way to second place in the annual Coast Conference tournament Monday at Salinas Country Club.

His 151 at the CCJC tourney automatically sent him into the State JC golf meet at Orange Coast JC in Costa Mesa next Monday. Complete tournament results hadn't been received by Recorder presstime.

Davis had a 54-hole total of 210 in the Oakland tourney, firing a three under par 69 in the final round to win by a single stroke over tournament defending champion Johnny Lotz of San Leandro. Davis' scores were 74-67-69.

Menlo Park Gun Club Sponsors Its Last Hunter Safety Course

Registration for the final hunter safety course sponsored solely by the Menlo Park Gun Club will close this Saturday, May 14, chief range officer Ben Shade announced this week. The class will be limited to 50 students. Registration and further information are available from Shade at DA 2-0590.

The four-day course will include two lecture sessions, one afternoon of range firing and final demonstrations and graduation ceremonies. Hundreds of students in this area have completed the popular course over the past year and have received their certificates of competence from the state Oepartment of Game and Fish and basic rifle certificates from the National Rifle Association.

Class schedule begins next Thursday, May 19, with a 7-9 p.m. lecture session in the Fellow Room of the Menlo Park Civic Center and another at the same time and place Friday. Practice firing and demonstrations will be held at the Stanford Rifle range Saturday, May 21, from 1-5 p.m. Final demonstrations and graduation ceremonies will be Thursday, May 26 at 7 p.m. in the Civic Center's Green Room.

The hunter safety course is a must for all junior hunters 16 years of age and under, who must have the certificate of competence to obtain a hunting heense. Boy Scout troops have been taking the course en masse, earning their marksmanship merit badges. It's also a favorite of the girl scouts and many other groups, both juvenile and adult.

It's also a highly-recommended course for all adult hunters, being one of the very few organized courses of instruction by qualified instructors for hunting in the field. The course includes instruction in firearms, wildlife, camping, campfires, first aid, game laws and all phases of forestry.

A free eye examination must be psased by all prospective students before they may be regsitered, Shade said. Cards are available from him.

Only charge for the course is for ammunition and materials used, he added. This amounts to between 75 cents and $2.50 per student.

7th Place Finish for Menlo Aquamen

Menlo College came in seventh, highest among Northern California junior colleges, in the best-ever three-day State JC swim championships at Bakersfield that concluded Saturday.

Coach Andy Goldner's Coast Conference champion Oaks scored 21 points. Long Beach CC repeated a team champ with 144, with Orange Coast repeating as runnerup with 61.

Every meet record was broken and two new national marks were set. Menlo's Steve Hull claimed one national JC mark with a 51.4 in the 100-yard freestyle in the trials. He tied for second in the finals with a 52.1.

The Oaks' other individual qualifier was Rich Bassi, who tied for fourth in the backstroke in 1:02.2.

The Oaks freestyle relay team of Nelson DeJesus, Bassi, Bill Clark and Hull placed third in the finals with a 3:33.5, .2 slower than their qualifying time. The medley relay team of Gary Stone, Hull, Bassi, and DeJesus came in fourth in 4:08.6, 1.1 over their qualifying time. This was the final action of the season for the Oaks.

Miss Prior will be joining with the members of the Company who are helping to raise money for next season's Scholarship Fund.

The concert is free of charge and the public is invited. However, because of limited seating capacity, tickets are required. They may be obtained by calling DA 4-1924 or DA 2-2372 and reserving them.

Slim Trim Class Volleyballers Enter Tourney

Menlo Park Recreation Department's Slim Trim volleyball team traveled to Buchser High School in Santa Clara yesterday for opening round of the annual Peninsula Slim Trim Tournament.

Teams participating are from Santa Clara, San Jose, Mountain View, Sunnyvale, Redwood City, Ravenswood, San Carlos and Menlo Park. Seven games will be played by each team, with a sudden death playoff to decide the winner.

Menlo Park's Slim Trim team, composed of members of the Rec Department's weekday morning Slim Trim classes, has been practicing ardently for the past weeks and seems to be in top shape for the coming contests, according to Doris Kogler, department supervisor of playgrounds and special events. Eighteen players are making the trip from Menlo Park.

SUMMER SPECIALS

Ferns are summer specials in California, and where the gardener can give them proper shade, moisture and rich, loose soil (the more leaf mold the better), he is sure to know success with them. Your nurseryman can show you several varieties. Use them with other shade loving plants such as begonias and cineraria for extra special effects.

M-A Thespians Get Ready for 'Brigadoon'

By BOB MACRI

"Brigadoon," Menlo-Atherton High School's annual all-school production, will be presented May 19, 20 and 21 at 8 p.m. in the school multi-purpose room. The play, a musical fantasy by Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner who also wrote "My Fair Lady" and "Gigi," was chosen by the Cultural Board.

"Brigadoon" is a mystical town in the Scottish highlands. Venturing into it are two cosmopolitan New York hunters, Tommy Albright and Jeff Douglas, played by Randy Heubach and Ernie Boukos respectively.

It is the day of the wedding of Jeannie MacLaren, portrayed by Judy Donovan and Charlie Dalrymple, by Bob Agrella. The infectious spirit of the townfolk is soon to attract Tommy and Jeff, especially when they meet Fiona MacLaren (Sue McClenahan) and Meg Brockie (Ann Fullenwider). Although Tommy remembers that his fiancee, Jane Ashton as played by Sheryl Dunn, is waiting back in New York, he cannot help falling in love with the innocence and candor of the beautiful Fiona.

During the course of the play, numerous interesting characters are spotlighted. There is the violently jealous Harry Beaton (Al Cassell) who loves Jeannie and who is loved by Maggie Anderson (Carolyn Zahnd). There are the town elders, Andrew MacLaren (Steve Ross), Archie Beaton (Paul Dupont) and Angus McGuffie (Bob Marsh). The role of the elrerly school teacher, Mr. Lundie, who tells Tommy and Jeff the secret of the town, will be played by Bob Macri.

Stuart Dalrymple (Gary Thompson), Sandy Dean (Steve Beck) and Frank, the bartender (Wes Fisher) complete the acting cast which is under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Olsen and by Tina Dwane, student assistant.

Dancers are under the direction of faculty advisor Louis Nardi, who also is serving as producer and who has choreographed a semi-professional production of the same show several years ago.

The Scottish girls who will perform in the numerous exciting dance interpretations which range from a fantasy ballet to a mourning ritual are Nancy Gray, Bonnie Elton, Macy Ennis, Carol Dobbins, Kit Fox, Sharon Hatlett, Virginia Stapleton and Sue Sleeper. Judy Donovan, Carolyn Zahnd and Steve Ross all have dance solos ranging from the serious to the comical. Al Cassell will perform the authentic Scottish Sword Dance, expected to be one of the evening's highlights.

The locales of the play switch from various sections of the Scottish Highland to the New York area. Planned and executed by Bob Agrella, head of set design and construction, his committee and Mr. Lewis Karcher, faculty advisor, the settings will strive for colorfulness, professionalism and realism. The Menlo-Atherton stage has been extended with the help of risers and ramps leading to the acting area. Instead of the customary box set, a three dimensional effect will be employed to further heighten the realism. On this committee are Bob Marsh, Steve Ross, Rick Tuffli, Reggie Del Aquila, Steve Stevick, Merle Knoff, Steve Beck, Cynthia Norris, Doug Allen and Tom Jamart.

Also helping to make the production a success are Miss Leslie Wyman, assistant to the choreographer and along with Mrs. Patricia Bachus, Girl Friday. The financial and business end of the show will be handled by Mrs. Mildred Briggs and Al Massoni . Mr. Richard Heidisek is art consultant. Judy Vandewater is Cultural Commission coordinator and Bob Marsh will serve as stage manager.

The large singing chorus, taken primarily from the a capella choir, is under the direction of music instructor Douglas Stobie. They include Kathy Brown, Rosemary Butera, Judy Schultz, Gayle Gowdy, Joyce Putnam, Jane and Sue Griffith, Carolyn Kennedy, Judy Conard, Chris Evjenth, Sue Valley, Judy Carleton, Sue Papps, Diane Grieco, Cindy Fraley, Jeanette Eisler, Charles Cheatham, Sally Ennis, Mary Richter, Howard Sonstegard, Cynthia Norris, Barbara Sanford, Chris Strohm, Claudia Dickman, Jill Cameron, Barbara Bond, Bernadette Atkinson, Pat Pomeroy, Peggy Peppard, Venita Tallmon, Fred King, Ed Scott, Frank McKillop, Bill Schwartz and Tom Whiting.

Piano accompanists are Don Cameron, Joe Martin, Pete Benjaminson and Kathy Gant.

Songs from "Brigadoon" include "Almost Like Being in Love", "My Mother's Wedding Day", "The Heather on the Hill", "Come to Me, Bend to Me", "Waiting for My Dearie", and many other popular songs.

Sue McClenahan, female lead, and Bonnie Elton, principal dancer, are members of the "Clenton Two", singing group which recently won the Bay Area and Western States finals competition of "Talentsville, U.S.A.", a nationwide teenage talent search.

Tickets will be on sale for $1 in the student patio for the week preceeding the production during both lunch periods, by members of the cast during the day and at the door on all three production dates.

A Happy Dancer . . .
. . . in the Menlo-Atherton High School production of "Brigadoon," Judy Donovan does a solo performance as Jeannie McLaren, a Scottish lass about to be married. Judy is one of the 12 dancers in the large cast, working hard for the May 19, 20 and 21 performances. "Brigadoon" will be presented in the school multi-purpose room. Curtain time is 8 p.m. each night.

In the Garden:

Showiest Show of Them All—Long-Lasting Chrysanthemums

No matter who wins the coming presidential election, magnificent chrysanthemums are sure candidates for fall garden supremacy. Because of their long lasting, gay flowers, mums are as much the people's choice for indoor arrangements as they are for out-of-doors.

The plants are easy to grow throughout California. Even when neglected, they usually produce flowers. However, with a little care, they bring to your garden a bold variety of colors from mid-July until Jack Frost tiptoes onto the scene. Colors range from shades of orange, yellow, red, purple, and bronze to delicate shades of pink and white.

Your local nurserymen offer these colors in a variety of forms from small, round pompoms to individual four-inch decoratives. So amazingly wide is the variation of mums that every gardener can find a type to delight him.

Ten days to two weeks before planting, loosen the soil to a depth of six inches, breaking up all lumps. Then spade organic matter — peat moss, compost or manure—into the soil. Just before planting, turn over soil again to take care of any weeds. Dig a hole large enough to accommodate the plant. Water thoroughly. Low growing, bushy varieties should be placed 2 to 2½ feet apart; others, 1 to 1½ feet apart. Don't crowd.

Plant chrysanthemums where they'll get sun at least two-thirds of the day; but afternoon shade in California's hot spots. Deep watering at intervals spaced according to soil structure is the rule. Placing a coarse mulch around the plants now will help keep moisture in this summer. Water early in the day so leaves dry before nightfall. (A preventive measure against fungus.) Stake plants to keep branches off the ground if necessary.

When small-flowered varieties are six to eight inches high pinch off light-green growth, or plants may develop spindly, weak stems. Disbud large-flowered mums every two weeks to concentrate growth in a few flowers.

Any way you look at it, the mum will give you maxiMUM gardening pleasure.

In Oregon Ceremony:

Jane McKenzie Wed To Henry D. Olson

Henry Dexter Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar H. Olson of Menlo Park, claimed Jane Grace McKenzie as his bride in a ceremony recently conducted at Bethany Presbyterian Church in Grants Pass, Dre.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank McKenzie and the late Frank McKenzie. Prior to her marriage, she was a kindergarten teacher at Hoover School in Palo Alto. Jane graduated from Butte High School in Montana, then attended the University of Montana before transferring to the University of Oregon from which she graduated. She later did graduate work at San Jose State College.

Conducting the late afternoon ceremony was the Rev. J. Alfred Marquam. Thomas M. McKenzie of Brookings, Ore., gave his sister in marriage.

For her wedding Jane chose a white waltz length taffeta gown in a princess style. The fitted bodice set off a boat neckline further complimented by a bouffant skirt. The bride's veil of white illusion was trimmed with seed pearls to match a pearl ornamented head band. Her corsage was an arrangement of stephanotis, lilies of the valley, and two large white orchids.

Mrs. Thomas McKenzie, her matron of honor, wore a sheath dress of pastel green. Flower girls were three nieces of the bride, Constance, Cynthia and Michele McKenzie. The girls were dressed in yellow organza and carried yellow chrysanthemum bouquets.

The bridegroom, an electrical engineer at Stanford Research Institute, attended Sequoia High School, and received his MA in electrical engineering at Stanford University.

Henry chose George Durfey of Menlo Park as his best man. Ushers were John Hardwick of Grants Pass and the benedict's younger brother, James Olson.

The church chapel was decorated with white lilacs and lilies of the valley, as was the church reception hall where the bride and groom greeted their guests. Mrs. McKenzie chose a brown knit suit, matching accessories, and a brown orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Olson wore a blue silk gown, harmonizing accessories, and a green orchid corsage.

Before leaving for their Carmel honeymoon destination, Jane changed into a suit of teal blue complimented by bone white accessories. An orchid from her wedding bouquet compleaed her attire.

Guests present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Lapp of Brookings, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Spurlock of Coalinga, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Brown of Inglewood, Calif., Mrs. Tony Reese and Mrs. William Park of Bakersfitid, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Christian of Sacramento, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. George Durfey of Menlo Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Webb of Los Gatos.

Pi Phi Benefit . . .

Mrs. Ralph Saylor Is GS Volunteer

Sequoia Area Girl Scout Council has a new member as a volunteer trainer, Mrs. Ralph D. Saylor of 28 Politzer drive, Menlo Park. Mrs. Saylor first started in scouting 17 years ago when her daughter registered in the Brownie program.

She has held many Girl Scout positions through the years—co-leader, leader, troop committee chairman, training committee chairman, district chairman and Juliet Low chairman. At present she is on the day camp committee for Sequoia Council.

Mrs. Saylor will be conducting training sessions in leadership, fly-up, badge workshops, basic outdoor skills, troop consultants and neighborhood service teams.

Recently the localite spent 14 days at "Our Cabana," in Cuernavaca, Mexico, an international home for Girl Guides and Scouts. She was one of seven from the United States who attended the conference, sponsored by the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. Only experienced trainers attend the conference. They reviewed training principals and techniques and methods of training. At that time, Mrs. Saylor was able to talk with scouts from all over the world and discuss scouting programs with them.

Mr. Saylor is general manager of Pacific Division of Western Union. He also is a registered member of Sequoia Girl Scout Council and serves as a board member in charge of employed personnel. In New York, Mr. Saylor was on the national personnel committee.
